Call for Applications: Postdoctoral Position

The Institute for Slavic and Eastern European Studies (ISOS) at the University of Zurich is inviting applications for a postdoctoral position in the humanities and cultural studies. The position is for a period of two years with a workload of 60–80% and can start on September 1st, 2026, or by agreement. Successful candidates can expect an interdisciplinary and highly internationally connected research and teaching environment.

Your responsibilities

- Independent research activity with the aim of further academic qualification
- Organisation of courses in the scope of one to two lessons per week (1-2 SWS)
- Participation in and organisation of activities of the Institute for Slavic and Eastern European Studies

Your profile

Applicants are expected to hold an excellent doctoral degree and to conduct internationally oriented research addressing key issues in East Central, Eastern, or Southeastern Europe, or the Caucasus and Central Asia, situating these topics within a global context.

Information on your application

Applications must be submitted by July 15, 2026, as a single PDF file containing the following documents: cover letter, CV, list of publications, detailed research proposal, and writing sample (two texts).
